

ENCOUNTERS IN THE NATURAL WORLD AT GLENTHORNE

Monday 4th – Friday 8th April

Led by Terry Winterton & Margaret Calvert (Kindlers team)

It has been said that God's first language is nature. Join us in time set aside to 'hear' and deepen our experience and friendship with the natural world. Experience the awe and wonder of the natural world, noticing promptings to prayer, joy and thankfulness. There will be some gentle walking each day; time to explore the Spirit in poetry or prose together; and time for art work, craft or journalling in the afternoons. There will also be opportunities for individual spiritual accompaniment each day. Terry is the Quaker Friend in Residence at Glenthorne, an experienced group facilitator and a registered counsellor. Margaret is the Kindler's coordinator and a facilitator with many years experience in accompanying individuals dealing with changing situations.

Course starts after dinner Monday and finishes 12.00pm Friday. Non residential guests welcome.

Residential cost £355. Non Residential £70
